Phase 1 of recovery a success and nomination of Hugo BRUGIERE as CEO

CYBERGUN, worldwide leader of leisure shooting, is thrilled to announce the nomination of Hugo BRUGIERE as the new CEO of the group, replacing Bernard LIATTI. This scheduled transition symbolizes the success of the "defensive" chapter, from the RESSTARTED 2020 plan.

Bernard LIATTI declares: « When I accepted to join CYBERGUN a year ago, I knew that the challenge to come was considerable. Beside the emergency of the debt restructuration, the group needed a profound restructuring of the foundations themselves. It's what I did thanks to my experience in similar reversal situations, with unshakable implication from the team, which I salute, and the shareholders support. Today, I serenely prepare the transition phase with a feeling of a job well done. I am giving to my successor a company, which is back on its feet, and restructured to be able to grow, again, where the process have been professionalized and for which the profitability threshold was greatly decreased. Now it's his turn to lead on with the offensive aspect of the plan. I am leaving for new challenges, while still staying attentive to CYBERGUN's future. »

Bernard LIATTI will receive a departure indemnity in CYBERGUN shares, attributed by RESTARTED INVESTMENT. The following will soon be subject of a transaction declared to AMF.

CYBERGUN's administration council, during its upcoming session on December 16th decided to name Hugo BRUGIERE, who was until now the VP of the group, to the new position of CEO. Meaning he will from now on have a dual functions. A graduate from IEP Paris (Political Science – Sciences Po) and the Special Military School of Saint-Cyr, as well as an avid airsoft player, Hugo also masters the firearms business. Hugo BRUGIERE was already overseeing the strategy of the group, such as negotiating the commercial agreements for the development of the new 4.5mm calibers & .22 calibers, as well as the opening of the SPARTAN IMPORT MILITARY DEPARTMENT subsidiary and the negotiation of the GLOCK license.

Hugo BRUGIERE has a deep knowledge of the CYBERGUN group, its ecosystem and marketing lever to be put into place so that the group can move forward and increase the turnover and in turn, the profitability.

Hugo BRUGIERE states: « First of all I would like to thank Bernard for the impressive work he has done this year with us. While I was taking care of the financial aspect of the group, he took care of the organization and fixed the huge loss that we had gathered from the past. Bernard is a man of honor and a friend that will stay alongside us, for example as part of his Administrative Council. Now it is my responsibility to take care of the offensive phrase of our plan. It's the most ambitious task but also the most exciting one, as well as the one that will add more value for our shareholders. »

The arrival of Hugo BRUGIERE as the CEO of the group also shows the will of the main shareholder RESTARTED INVESTMENT, to be an active part of the CYBERGUN group. As a reminder, Hugo BRUGIERE is from the personal funds range of Claude SOLARZ, CEO of CYBERGUN.

Claude SOLARZ concludes: « I'd like to thank Bernard LIATTI who acted with a sense of duty and respected the decided objectives for the defensive phase of the reversal plan. He put the group back on track and I have complete trust in Hugo to not only develop but over perform the offensive aspect of the plan. Man of product and convictions, he already succeeded in numerous missions for my personal fund. I have complete trust in the future and with the nomination of Hugo my will to be more present in the reversal plan is in place. We can not make any mistakes, failure is not in my DNA. »
