PRESS RELEASE

Jérôme Marsac, the original founder of CYBERGUN, his holding Hobby Import, and CYBERGUN signed a settlement agreement to terminate their disputes by compensating Jérôme Marsac and his Hobby Import holding for 525 K EUR in the form of CYBERGUN's ordinary shares which will be issued at a price equal to the nominal value, including in particular the 260 KEUR which he had paid to BNP PARIBAS in his personal capacity upon the redemption of CYBERGUN bank debt in 2014 and the 462 KEUR he had paid to CYBERGUN in 2010 and 2011 to finance the development of an energy drink.

CYBERGUN recognizes that its development as a small French wholesaler in 1994 to its current position as a world leader in licensed replicas is the result of his vision and his work spanning over 20 years from 1994 to 2014.
